

Additional Full time Positions

with multi-site work.

SAHO's final offer includes a process, with negotiated implementation, for dealing with the creation of positions that work in more than one site within the same employer. This improves the ability of the employers to create new full time positions.

In the event travel between facilities during the work day is required, the employer will pay transportation costs associated with the travel.

www.working-together.info